

CAULY
HEALY

ARTIST

Our Society is the Virus

My name is Cauly Healy. I'm from the Blackfoot Confederacy, more specifically Kainai. I was born in Calgary, moved a lot between Lethbridge and Calgary. I consider Southern Alberta my home, feeling comfortable anywhere I go. I always loved to draw, I would consider myself a beginner at it. I let my emotions guide me when I work. My goal in life is to stop dominating nature and shifting Mother Earth to our liking, instead work with her and let all her creations enjoy her gifts. It hurts seeing what has been done to her, we have to step up and change.

RODNEY CARRIERE

ARTIST
COVID vs. Earth

My name is Rodney Carriere. I am from Sandy Bay, Manitoba. I'm Ojibway and Cree. I am an artist who paints by the setting tone and mood that I want to attribute towards my painting. I hope to become an architect so then sketches and drawing can still be useful to me.

ADONAI NICHOLSON

ARTIST

When we heal the Earth, we heal ourselves

My name is Adonai Nicholson, I am Mountain Cree from Northern Alberta but I grew up in Calgary, Alberta. I grew up in a family where everyone was fairly crafty and artistic and that is why I enjoy creating things. I want to spread information and inspire people with what I can create.

PHILIP HAYES

ARTIST

Wasted Dreams

My name is Philip Haynes, an Indigenous transman from Calgary. I am currently attending school so I can further my career as an artist. I use my art to express my emotions and the things I believe in, hoping to one day expand my artistry with the world and share perspectives that otherwise wouldn't be.
