AUDIENCE

IndigiTRAILS: Stolen Sisters

IndigiTRAILS: Stolen Sisters honours Indigenous women who are murdered and missing throughout Canada. This digital installation utilizes the Missing and Murdered Aboriginal Women and Girls

Database with CBC. In this experience, you will see their photos, hear stories, and the circumstances surrounding their cases. The information here is heartbreaking, disturbing and may trigger some.

Trigger Warning: The imagery in this experience showcases Indigenous women and girls who are murdered and missing. If you are experiencing emotional distress and want to talk, contact the toll-free Hope for Wellness Hotline at 1-855-242-3310.

To leave this bleak reality behind, it is important to envision an alternative future that we want to inhabit. Together we can remember our Stolen Sisters, and develop strategies to prevent gender-based violence.

"Indigenous women are at greater risk of violence than any other group in Canada. This is not an accident, it's a consequence of colonization, racism, and sexism that has been perpetuated for generations."

- Cindy Blackstock
