IndigiTRAILS: Regalia Roots

Explore the world of Indigenous regalia and powwow with IndigiTRAILS: Regalia Roots - an interactive exhibit featuring the dances, regalia and traditions from Treaty 7 and with the wisdom of local Elders and Knowledge Holders. Discover the spiritual significance of each dance, any symbolism in Indigenous stories, and the meaning behind why we come together. Use the IndigiTRAILS app to join us and learn more.

For more information on the IndigiTRAILS app, Winged Wisdom or other available trails, please contact the Urban Society for Aboriginal Youth (USAY) at 403-233-8225 or via email at info@usay.ca. You can also check out the USAY website at usay.ca or learn about this app at usay.ca/IndigiTRAILS

This Augmented Reality (AR) GPS experience at Elbow River Park is a unique way to explore the rich regalia and powwow culture of Treaty 7. As you walk through the park, your device's GPS guides you to various points of interest where you can interact with augmented reality displays that showcase traditional regalia and powwow dances.

You'll learn about the significance of the different colors and designs on the dancers' clothing, as well as the history and cultural importance of powwows. The experience is designed to be immersive and educational, providing a deeper understanding and appreciation for the Indigenous culture and traditions of the area.

As you move through the park, you'll also be able to see an authentic and powerful experience. AR GPS experience at Elbow River Park is an unforgettable journey that you won't want to miss.

REGALIA ROOTS

"Regalia is not just clothing, it's a way of life. Powwow is not just a social event, it's a spiritual experience. And dance is not just movement, it's a connection to the Creator, to the Earth, and to our ancestors."

– Dr. Lita Mathews
