IndigiTRAILS

Augmented Tipi Raising

IndigiTRAILS: Ponokáómitaa Niitóyis (The Horse Tipi Story) explores the teachings and traditions of the Blackfoot Confederacy tipi raising, blending ancestral knowledge with modern technology.

Rooted in the wisdom passed down through generations of the Blackfoot Confederacy, these insights honour the spiritual connections, stories, and practices of the families who carry these teachings forward.

Our Knowledge Holders

DARREN WEASLECHILD

A proud Blackfoot member of the Siksika Nation, located within the traditional territory of the Blackfoot Confederacy in Treaty 7, originally known as the Blackfoot Treaty. Deeply connected to his cultural roots, carrying the teachings and traditions of his ancestors, honouring the strength and resilience of the Blackfoot people.

GRANT LITTLE MUSTACHE

A proud member of the Piikani Nation, part of the Blackfoot Confederacy. A self-taught artist, he has been drawing and painting for over 50 years, using his work to bring stories, traditions, and visions to life. Now a full-time artist, Grant continues to share his creativity and cultural expression with the world.
